

Supply Chain Management
Bsc (Hons) & Foundation Year

Modules:

Foundation year:

- Preparing for University Success Exploring the Business Environment
- Advancing your Academic Skills
- Becoming an Effective Leader
- Planning for Your Future Success
- Investigation & Innovation Project

Level 4:

- Business Research Methods and Analysis (20 credits) Business Consulting (20 credits)
Principles of Procurement and Contract Management
(20 credits)
- Governance in a Global Business Environment (20 credits)
- Introduction to Project Management (20 credits)
- Digital Skills and Professional Development (20 credits)
- Technology and Innovation (20 credits)

Level 5:

- Operations and Supply Chain Management (20 credits)
- Agile Project Management (20 credits)
- Sustainable and Circular Supply Chain Management (20 credits)
- Applied Logistics Management (20 credits)
- Operational Risk and Resilience (20 credits)
- Digital & Social Media Marketing (20 credits)
- AI and Big Data Analytics (20 credits)

Level 6:

- Digital Supply Chain 4.0 (20 credits)
- Strategic Supply Chain Management (20 credits)
- Quality Management (20 credits)
- Social Value Networks (20 credits)
- Logistics & Supply Chain Research Project (40 credits)

Course Fees:

- Foundation Year - £9,250
- Level 4 - £9,250
- Level 5 - £9,250
- Level 6 - £9,250

What is blended learning?

Blended learning is where you study 8 hours a week in class spread over 2 days that's 4 hours each day, and 25 hours a week of independent learning through ilearn.

Study centres:

The study centres where you can do blended learning are in London Ealing, London Tower Hill, London Holborn, Manchester and Birmingham.

Career prospects:

Graduates with a BSc (Hons) in Supply Chain Management have strong career prospects due to the growing importance of efficient logistics, procurement, and distribution systems in global business operations. Here are some potential career paths and opportunities:

-
- Supply Chain Manager
- Logistics Coordinator/Manager
- Procurement Specialist/Manager
- Operations Manager
- Inventory Manager
- Supply Chain Analyst
- Transportation Manager
- Demand Planner
- Customer Service Manager (Supply Chain Focus)
- Consultant in Supply Chain Management

Salary Expectations:

Salaries vary based on role, location, and experience. For entry-level positions, starting salaries typically range from £25,000 to £35,000 per year. With experience, salaries can increase significantly, with mid-career professionals earning between £40,000 and £60,000, and senior roles such as Supply Chain Manager or Operations Director potentially earning £70,000+.

In summary, a BSc (Hons) in Supply Chain Management opens doors to a variety of dynamic and rewarding career paths in a wide range of industries, with competitive salaries and opportunities for growth.